

All carpool members must complete and sign this form. A signature denotes agreement to all Parking Rules and Regulations. Once complete, return form to Parking & Transit office. All members must be present.

Thank you for your interest in our new carpool program. The following rules apply to carpool permits:

- Carpool members must be University of Kansas commuter students, not including freshmen.
- Carpool permits are valid only in all yellow lots, lots 52, 61, and 301. Only one car may be parked in lot 52 or 61 at any time. Any member may park in lot 301 at any time.
- A carpool must have at least 2 members. Carpool members may not have any other parking permits besides a carpool permit, except an accessible placard. Accessible placards must be registered (Rule 3.1).
- Any parking tickets issued to carpool participants are the responsibility of the owner/operator of the vehicle.
- Any abuse of a carpool permit by participants, family members, non KU students, or anyone not authorized to use carpool permit will result in the carpool permit being revoked.
